Claims 1-6, 8, 10-14 have been canceled. Claim 7, 15 and newly presented claims 16-21 are still at issue and are present for examination. Claim 9 is withdrawn.

Applicants' arguments filed on 7/6/2004 have been fully considered and are deemed to be persuasive to overcome some of the rejections previously applied. Rejections and/or objections not reiterated from previous office actions are hereby withdrawn.

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because newly introduced SEQ ID NO:88 (human CENP-E), entered through the preliminary amendment filed 7/6/2004, discloses 2663 amino acids. However, in the issued patent No. 6,544,766 applicant reports the same sequence (i.e. human CENP-E) to have 2662 amino acids (see their SEQ ID NO:31). Correction of this discrepancy is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Considering that SEQ ID NO:88 has been added to the

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Considering that SEQ ID NO:88 has been added to the specification on 7/6/2004 the examiner cannot find support for fragments of CENP-E that meet the limitations of claim 7 in the specification. Hence, said fragments and limitations thereof are considered to be new matter. In his/her last response applicant refers to page 37, lines 21-25 wherein fragments with claimed limitations are recited. However, the examiner finds that page 37 of current application is merely referring to a substitute table, the contents of which are entered through the preliminary amendment of 4/30/2002 and no reference to any percentage identities in said amendment could be found. Applicant is advised to either refer the examiner to the location in the disclosure wherein the explicit support for the subject matter of claim 7 is provided or possibly delete said claim.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 7 remains rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 2 and 6 of U. S. Patent No. 6,544,766 since the claims, if allowed, would improperly extend the "right to exclude" already granted in the patent.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the patent and is covered by the patent since the patent and the application are claiming common subject matter, as follows: as mentioned above, SEQ ID NO:31 of said U.S. patent (consisting of 2662 amino acids) is shorter than current SEQ ID NO:88 (consisting of 2663 amino acids) of this invention and inherently has ATPase activity. Hence the scope of claims 2 and 6 of the above mentioned patent continue to embrace the scope of claim 7 of this invention. In traversal of this rejection applicant indicates he/she has filed a terminal disclaimer. However, if applicant has filed a terminal disclaimer said disclaimer is not currently of record.

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant was prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application during prosecution of the application which matured into a patent. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

Claims 16-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 7-12 of above mentioned patent. Again, as mentioned above, it is unclear whether SEQ ID NO:88 of this invention and SEQ ID NO:31 of U.S. patent No. 6,544,766 are identical. If, in fact, said sequences are identical, there is no scope difference between said issued claims and claims 16-21 of invention.

This is a double patenting rejection.

No claims are allowed.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
